New Stakeholders Bring Varied Backgrounds to BEST Human Capital & Advisory Group

Retained Executive Search and Human Resource Advisory Group Enthusiastically Expands Firm

INDIANAPOLIS, IN – October 5, 2018 – Join BEST Human Capital & Advisory Group in welcoming Nancy Hintz and Ben Molenda to the BEST team. The addition of Nancy and Ben builds on the exceptional value that BEST delivers to clients.

Nancy Hintz has over two decades of diverse experience in chemical, biotechnology, manufacturing, and non-profit sectors. She is the co-founder of the Indianapolis based non-profit “Million Meal Movement,” which feeds the hungry and teaches the importance of volunteerism. Nancy’s broad base of knowledge helps serve an array of clients in identifying top executive leadership. According to Nancy, “Clients need more than just candidates. They need solutions. I strive to help my clients identify the right solutions by listening to their needs, utilizing behavioral-based assessments and asking the right questions.”

Ben Molenda joined BEST as a Junior Advisor (intern) in May 2018 and has been promoted to a Human Capital Advisor. Ben will be graduating from the School of Public and Environmental Affairs at Indiana University in December 2018. Ben is a strong contributor; involved in business analysis, client intake, candidate assessments and pre-and post-screening. He has written for the BEST Blog and brings a unique and exuberant perspective to BEST and their client partners.

Nancy and Ben both have abundant track records of outperforming standards and promoting excellent communication lines to build lasting relationships that benefits any entity with which they conduct business.
