New Stakeholders Bring Varied Backgrounds to BEST Human Capital & Advisory Group

Retained Executive Search and Human Resource Advisory Group Enthusiastically Expands Firm

INDIANAPOLIS, IN – June 12, 2019 – Join BEST Human Capital & Advisory Group in welcoming Tessa Rasmussen and Matthew Pope. The addition of Matthew and Tessa will build on the business advisory and quality talent acquisition value that BEST strives to deliver to clients.

Matthew’s ten plus years of business development and client management background will continue to advance BEST initiatives. Matthew’s experience helps companies identify and implement the targeted BEST Retained Recruiting and HR Advisory Service. “I am excited to continue providing client management and business development. It is my goal to serve our clients for the betterment of their industries.”

Tessa joins BEST as a Junior Advisor recently graduating from Bradley University. Bringing over five years of customer service experience, working at an industry leading marketing company, Tessa will leverage her multiple degrees to bring a youthful and experienced approach to clients and candidates. “Post college, I was focused on finding an organization that matched my values and goals. BEST exceeds those expectations.”

“Tessa and Matthew both bring an extensive business background as we expand in our focused industries. Each represents the philosophy that transparency, generosity, and integrity are imperative to customer client relations.” States Joni Downing, a BHCA Group Managing Partner.

About BEST Human Capital & Advisory Group:

BEST is a business advisory and retained executive search firm. The relationship we build with clients allows us to truly understand the human capital and industry challenges which effect your business. We are not transactional. We are not headhunters. We are not contingency recruiters. BEST is client driven and solution based. We support you as a vested partner to identify strategies enabling you to hire and retain the best cultural and behavioral assets for your company.

Driving your success through a focused and consultative approach.
